LOST CABIN SONG.

Let the bigh notes of Liberry roll

From the pains of the South us the dark rolling was.

From the name of the South us the dark rolling was.

From the name of the round to the pole.

A shoot from each Freeman—a about from each State.

To the Whige and their candidates (rue.

And this be our motion—the motion of fair—

"Henratt rou Old Tirracason."

Let the Log Califor rise in the East and the West. Though the Vanites may seed at our toll. Their roofs shall inflame over patrint's breast,
And new-hallow America's soil!

And new-halfow America's coll —
Then a shout from each freeman—a shout from each fixeman—a shout from each fixed.
To the Farmer of Ohio true,
And this be our motion—the motion of Fale—
'HORRAM FOR OLD TIPPICAROE'

When the red balts of featile burst over our land,

And abroaded our Cabina in flames.
Who quelled the izeader 1—Old Tip with his band.
At Fort Meiga and the glarman Thames!
Then a shoutfrom each free man—a about from each State
To the patriot General true.
And this be our motion—the monion of Fate—
'Howard row Old Tippechaus.

Oil where was the thing that now rolls in its couch.
When our Hero his bacoer under it?
With the to's and rep it was cauting reproach
to the atim which defended a world?
There shoul from each free man—a shout from each State,
To the conquering General doe,
And this be our matter the matter of Fate—
Herman ron Old Treachant!

Van from his coulers of above douk mar, And loange on his conbound setter,
Our man on his soft belongs beach can recline,
Content with band ender, is bu!
Then about freework from na—a shout from each State.
To the plant, honest husbandman true.
And also be our motio—the motio of bate—
'Honeau row Our Tirrecasoo'.
